

I am very much against any watering down or weakening of the telephone privacy act in Indiana. Please leave this act alone. It works very well as it is.